Honey Please

Edith Frost

Honey please don't believe
I'd ever say goodbye
To you, to you
Honey please don't believe
I'd ever make you cry
Or break your precious heart in two'cause I'm not the kind of girl
Who'd ever take your love for granted
Or run around with somebody new
And I'm not the kind of girl
Who'd ever wanna go and leave you
As long as you're feelin' the way that I do
Then I promise i'll always be true'Cause you're not the kind of man
Who'd ever take my love for granted
Or run around like your old love did you
And I'm not the kind of girl
Who'd ever wanna go and leave you
As long as you're feelin' the way that I do
Then I promise i'll always be true
