Crazy

Nonpoint

Life, you train it
Trust you break it
Key, you break it all,
So where does that leave me?
Hope, I miss it
This, what is it?
There, I lost it
Where does that leave me?
Everything I lost
Every choice I make
A hundred times I've told you
A million miles away
Struggle in the hole
You took it all away
Beg me for the forgiveness
Or give it all away
I'm going crazy
Because you made me
I'm going crazy
Why won't you save me?
Cared, for nothing
Tried, to hurt me
Did your worst
In the end it's left me strong
Gave attention
Learned the lessons
Respect, I walk the line
So where did I go wrong?
Penney for your thoughts

A Pound of flesh I gave
One more bad decision
One less war to wage
Strangling the hope
You took it all away
You begged me for forgiveness
Give it all away
I'm going crazy
Because you made me

I'm going crazy
Why won't you save me?
I can see
The future in this
It keeps me
Dead and soulless
Do release
My worst desires
Storm the beach
The rage, the fire
I'm going crazy
Because you made me
I'm going crazy
Why won't you save me?
Because you made me
I'm going crazy
My soul, my sorrow
Paved the way
To leave us hungry
