

Alimony

Diamond Head

[Tatler / Tart / Wilcox]

Listen baby

Our love has fallen apart

How can you let this be?

Till death do us part?

A promise you just couldn't keep

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Baby why you being so blind

Why don't you just see?

There's one life under this sun

I gotta find a new relief

Now the debt man's coming and the hound dog's bark

Breaking these chains ain't a stroll in the park

Out in the cold and it's breaking my heart

Hey now listen baby

Don't worry about the money

It's a fifty, fifty split

But if I pay you alimony, how am I suppose to live, yeah

Hey, hey, how am I suppose to live

Now the tax man thinks I've got something to hide

A job that was cash in hand

Your wife said now you ain't getting along

She's gonna find herself a better man

Hold on little lady, your moving way to fast

I just wanted a break, to bring the good times back

Don't worry about the money

It's a fifty, fifty split

If I pay you alimony, how am I suppose to live

Don't worry about the money

It's a fifty, fifty split

If I pay you alimony, how am I suppose to live, yeah

I'm down on my knees

You got me begging, please

Cause I can't live

I can't live
