

Winter song

Dover

Waiting outside tonight is cold enough no one will come I hate the winter noise.

Soon, so soon, everglade in you she rather die than to stay
she rather die than to stay
oh! my sheperd, oh! my sheperd ooohh!

no one will come I hate the winter noise.

Soon, so soon, everglade in you
she rather die than to stay
she rather die than to stay
oh! my sheperd, oh! my sheperd
ooohh!

She knows what she has lost she hates it when the rain falls she knows why she's lost she hates it when the winter comes.
I'll die in blue.
