I Say Yeah

Orlando Johnson

Alright, yeah
AlrightI know that, you know that
I can't stop watching you
I feel it, believe me
I know you feel it too
Oh oh, yeahThere's something about me
That you don't know about
I'm someone that somehow
You seem to be withoutIs it so hard to see
That I'm not invisible?
Feel like a fly on the wallSo if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowing kisses your way
Will you think I'm okay?Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah, if you say alrightYeah
AlrightI might not be special
Not like your superman
But living and loving
Well, that I super-canIt's not so complicated
Not reinvent the wheel
Just let me know how you feelSo if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowing kisses your way
Will you think I'm okay?Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah, if you say alrightAha, yeahIf you say alright
Then I will say okay
I will take your hand
And we can fly awayNo matter where we go
You will always hear me say
YeahI say yeah
AlrightSo if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowing kisses your way
Will you think I'm okay?Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher

Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah, if you say alrightSet the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah, if you say alright
