

Three Minute Positive Not Too Country Up-tempo Lov

Alan Jackson

This is a three minute song to tell her that I love her
And how wonderful we get along
A sweet sentiment that's borderline slick
A lotta right and not much wrong
It's a little bit edgy, but softer than spaghetti
Weak, yet redundantly strong
But it's a three minute positive
Not too country, up-tempo, love song
Yeah, it's a three minute positive
Not to country, up-tempo, love song
It's a way for me to tell her that I love her
But it can't be too long
There'll be no drinkin', no cheatin', no lyin', no leavin'
That stuff, it just don't belong
In a three minute positive
Not to country, up-tempo, love song
Here we go
You won't hear four-letter words, just me tellin' her
That she's the every breath I draw
And how I can't live without her and I could never doubt her
'Cause she could never do no wrong
Well, it's the right amount of timin', the proper form of rhymin'
A little guitar, then it's gone

It's a three minute positive
Not too country up-tempo love song
Yeah, it's a three minute positive
Not to country, up-tempo, love song
It's a way for me to tell her that I love her
But it can't be too long
There'll be no drinkin', no cheatin', no lyin', no leavin'
That stuff, it just don't belong
In a three minute positive
Not to country, up-tempo, love song
Hey, in a three minute positive
Not too county, up-tempo, love song
There'll be no drinkin', no cheatin', no lyin', no leavin'
That stuff it just don't belong
In a three minute positive

Not too country, up-tempo, love song
Hey, in a three minute positive
Not too country, up-tempo, love song
{Hey, how much time is that Keith?
Back, 2:56
We need four more seconds}
