

Call and Answer

Lakefield

The daylight fades so fast
And midnight comes to pass
By morning, winter's here
And summer disappears

I never thought Iâ€™d see the day
When all illusions slipped away
No man to answer the call
My past, my future, my fault

Call and answer / You said you ran out of time
Call and answer / You thought youâ€™d tried
All the answers that youâ€™d set out to find
Now or never

The leaves fall, settling in the snow
Unraveling secrets down below
The sky turns black then fades
And memoryâ€™s all that remains

Call and answer / You said you ran out of time
Call and answer / You thought youâ€™d tried
All the answers that youâ€™d set out to find
Now or never

You stay the same, or make the change
You never know what youâ€™ll find

Call and answer

You stay the same, or make the change
You never know what youâ€™ll find
