

Invasion

Magnum

You wouldn't believe your eyes
You wouldn't believe your ears
    Out of the dawning skies
    Suddenly it appeared
I wonder why they're here, do they understand?
Seems they will destroy someone's master plan
    Looking across the sea
    Looking across the land
    Wondering what they'll find
    Wondering what's at hand
    Breathing in the air, feel the falling rain
Getting all prepared for the final day
From out of the crimson air
    Suddenly came the fire
    Look at the flaming sky
    See how the flames grow higher
    Alien, your day this not to be
All the people say let the world be free
You wouldn't believe your eyes
    You wouldn't believe your ears
    Into the dawning skies
    Suddenly disappeared
Set their course for Mars, leave the world behind
Tracking through the stars, find a different sign
