

The Loser's Ball

Elvenking

[Music & Lyrics: Aydan]I was told by my Grandma'

Many years ago, I was just a child

"Boy, go and grow as an honest man

Look on what you've done with pride!"The years have passed I'm a normal lad

I won't be named in school treatises

But looking back on what I've done

Yes, there's a glimpse of pride!The losers' ball - Dance with me

To the sound of the fiddle

For the ones who fall - Like a cloudless

Sky reflected in a billow

Learn a new step for each new Babylon

(build the city of lies and despair)If you have time send a message

To every form of human life

"Hey out there if someone listens

This way we won't survive!"We'll be drawn in arrogance

Hanged by the noose of greed

A new religion of violence

A bible of bad deedsThe losers' ball - Dance with me

To the sound of the fiddle

For the ones who fall - Like a cloudless

Sky reflected in a billow

Learn a new step for each new Babylon

(build the city of lies-lust-despair)
