Our Time Has Passed

Pernice Brothers

Hiding out from the winter Sundays
Sleeping past the crack of noon
Knotted legs and a wet hair tangle
How they unraveled far too soonThere's a box I still can't open
There's a name that hurts to say
I fall in love with the way I'm shaking
In the crowd I think I see your faceOur time has passed so quickly
Our bittersweet hello goodbye
Our time has passed so quickly
Do you ever wonder why?Was it real? Was it imagined?
Either way I just don't care
It's like a flash of radiation
That leaves the buildings where they standOur time has passed so quickly
Our bittersweet hello goodbye
Our time has passed so quickly
Do you ever wonder why?Tripping through our days at lightning speed
A wallet sized reminder
Won't repeat your words to me
This world won't get at usOur time has passed so quickly
Our bittersweet hello goodbye
Our time has passed so quickly
Do you ever wonder why?Our time has passed so quickly
Our time has passed so quickly
Our time has passed so quickly
Our time, our time has passed
