Now or Later

Dylan Matthew

She askin if I want it now or later, she want a player.
To take it down like elevators, a demonstrator.
I rev her up, accelerator, my navigator.

To take it down like elevators, a demonstrator.

I tell her ooh I want now babe, ooh I want it now babe

Only if you want it, I'll let you float it Reads my mind like a crystal ball and
She's always on it
She talking to me like she own it She got me crawling
And screaming ooh I want it now babe, ooh I want it now babe

Ah yea, she wanna talk to me like she ridin on it
Aye, why you keep playing like I ain't 'round again tonight
Can't stop thinking bout you won't even try to front it
Can't sleep cause your body is calling me up in the night
She just want the finer things and I can't complain cause she starting in that Lui V
Talking lot a game let's see if she came to play
Even though we on the same team Talk sweetly
Whisper in my ear that you mean it all
Every single word this far, believe me
I wouldn't lie
It's the path that we take
The risks we make I do it for you

She askin if I want it now or later, she want a player.
To take it down like elevators, a demonstrator.
I rev her up, accelerator, my navigator.
I tell her ooh I want now babe, ooh I want it now babe
Only if you want it, I'll let you float it Reads my mind like a crystal ball and
She's always on it
She talking to me like she own it She got me crawling
And screaming ooh I want it now babe, ooh I want it now babe

I see your stars shining but they ain't as bright as you
Got lost in your eyes and drowned inside all of the blue
I can't take it it's amazing mesmerized by all you do
Keep me falling keep me calling up your phone at 1 or 2
Please just pick up, tell me everything I wanna hear

Tell me stories bout your family, what I missed over the years
Ride or die we ride tonight and all we see are the headlights
It's kinda tight then I swear, how we could jump up and touch the sky
Talk sweetly
Whisper in my ear that you mean it all
Every single word this far, believe me
I wouldn't lie
It's the path that we take
The risks we make I do it for you

She askin if I want it now or later, she want a player.
To take it down like elevators, a demonstrator.
I rev her up, accelerator, my navigator.
I tell her ooh I want now babe, ooh I want it now babe
Only if you want it, I'll let you float it
Reads my mind like a crystal ball and
She's always on it
She talking to me like she own it
She got me crawling
And screaming ooh I want it now babe, ooh I want it now babe.
