In Reversal

Extol

it starts from within confess, repent, let go the truth will set free
let the holy power
ignite the fire inside
the spirit will trigger vanished dreams in your life face your life
no need to fake
the light will let you see reversal
hearts on fire
they will see
through the love between us deeper, more profound
you will have to choose:
hiding inside
the masquerade of death
a transparent life
with a burning heart
