Over It (Ikonika Remix)

Junior Boys

Ah, yeah
Baby, baby
Hope is for the middle of the night
Hope is fading with the first of the morning sunday light
And I'm staying with her, baby
Keep it out of sight
And I'm better for us, baby
Put your little fire out at night, yeah
Show us your maybe's
Better than a quick alright
Cause it drives 'em crazy
And you're feeling like you've been in a street fight
Yeah, we're bound to fall apart
Falling in the stars
After everything, my friend
It's better if you have a single bed
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
Oh, oh
Ah, ah, ah
Oh
Baby, baby
Seeing you would be too much
It cuts you crazy
Finding a new place to forget your touch
And I'm digging up the earth
Now that I'm feeling sure
From last night to the dirt
It won't prevail
It won't prevail
It won't prevail
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
Come on back to town, my love
It's been a long round, my love

Well, no more
Oh
Come on now
- music -
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
The nights are gone
But you're afraid to go home
The nights are gone
(the heartbreak)
But you're afraid to go home
(the heartbreak)
The nights are gone
(Don't harm me)
But you're afraid to go home...
But you're afraid to go home...
But you're afraid to go home...
But you're afraid to go home...
But you're afraid to go home...
