Snowflakes Are Dancing

Kurt Vile

Bought a ticket from a tin man, he was my main man
He told me something, he told me everything
Through my dark day, he led the way
Again I stray away, again I stayThere is but one true love, within my heart
There is but one man, that I am
When I'm away out there, I wanna go home
When I am home, my head stays out thereSnowflakes are dancing, discman is pumping Headphones are loud, chilling on a pillowy cloud Comfort of codeine, and Springsteen pristine
You should sing just whateveroooooh oooooooooh-ooooooooooh
