Blood Relations

Sinner

i walk alone - through the shadows of dawn my heart tells you why what i'm going through, the nights without you i was prepared to diethere is an open flame burning the gamesea of emotion - blood relations i will remember
i'll send a prayer - blood relations i will remember youan innocent age - turns into an angry rage i'm living with heartache i tried not to call - my hands on the wall let the light shine out of the darknessthere is an open flame
i will remember you
