Our Song

Kate Miller-Heidke

Sometimes when the sky is clear blue
Sometimes I can hear you singing to me
But lately part of me just crumbles
Every time I hear that melodyWoah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Our songIt doesn't matter if your heart's new broken
If we haven't spoken in a year
You'll be walking somewhere very far away
Where the sky is full gray and you will hearWoah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Our songAnd for a moment you can hold it
And the colors all come back
Like the smell of spring on a shifting wind
Our songWoah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woahWoah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Our song, our song
