

A Lifetime

Ziggy Marley

Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And a lifetime isn't enough to live
Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And one lifetime isn't enough to live I may be different than you, criticized for what I do
I chose to explore the truth, the truth of me
And I won't be afraid on that day
I stand on my feet because I am, yeah Took the risk the chance just to understand
Well I been cold, bold, selfish, misunderstood
Like the lamb I will sacrifice to find you Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And a lifetime isn't enough to live
Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And one lifetime isn't enough to live Been around so many people
Without you I'm always alone
Gazing into space, my existence unknown
I don't want to be here, I wanna be near
I stand on my feet because I am, yeah Took the risk the chance just to understand
Now I've been cold, bold, selfish, misunderstood, yeah
And like the lamb I will sacrifice to find you Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And a lifetime isn't enough to live
Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And one lifetime isn't enough to live An I so different than you, criticized for what I do
I chose to explore the truth, the truth of you
And I won't be afraid on that day
I stand on my feet, because I am yeah
Took the risk the chance just to understand Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And a lifetime isn't enough to live
Oh, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And one lifetime isn't enough to live Hey, a lifetime isn't enough to love you
And one lifetime isn't enough to live
