

I'll Be Alright

Tituss Burgess

I'll be alright
I'll be just fine
They're no real scars
I'll heal in no time

The phone's been ringing and ringing and ringing
Off the hook
I knew it wasn't you
I didn't bother to look

Oh how I hoped you would call
But I just days missed the thought
Oh well a silly me
To think this beneeding could lead to

Long walks and
Long talks and
Long kisses and
Oh how I wish that
These brief pacings of
Random romances would Stay a little longer than the Hurt when it over

Oh I realize
That these things take time
I guess I just thought
Maybe this time was mine

Now I am stuck in a place
Where I am in a constant daze
Its taken all the strength you see
To break this hold you've got on me

Well damn those walks and Damn those talks and
To hell with your kisses and
Oh how I wish that
I'd never had known you
And never had shown you

How close I had come to falling
In love with you
Oh oh
Oh-woah oh

I'm gonna make it through
My world didn't start with you
