

Another Bus

The Twang

Jumping on another bus
I don't need this rush no more
Take your hands out of your pockets
Turn the lights on I've been losing too much time
Taking back what once was mine
This is never gonna do
Always thought I'd miss you On and on, on and on and on and on Saw the girl the other day
Couldn't bring myself say
That the straw that broke the camel's back has fallen She'd been losing too much time
Sick and tired of towing the line
This is never gonna do
Always thought she'd want you On and on, on and on and on and on We never really tried
I guess we'll never know
Some things are better left alone
