How Could You

K-ci & Jojo

All I can do is sit alone
In my room, baby thinking about you
How could this be
That you are not here with me
When I gave you the best of me
I face each day, each day
Without a smile and life seems so unfair
I feel like I wanna die
'Cause you didn't even give me a last
You didn't give me a last goodbye, baby
I've waited weeks for your call
I've waited here by the phone
But when the silence grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it, babe
How could you do it, babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
How could you do it, babe?
How could you do it, do it, do it, do it?
How could you do it, baby
And tear my poor heart in two?
Ain't no more blue up in my sky
Only cloudy mornings
And these tears like rain you left behind
All of those memories in the corner of my mind
I started looking at us
At a picture in a frame as I start to cry
'Cause I can't picture us apart
Oh my God can you help me?
Can you help with this pain
With this pain I'm feeling deep down inside Lord?
I've waited weeks for your call

I've waited here by the phone
But when the silence grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it, babe
How could you do it, babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?

Girl tell me it's not true
Will I have to spend the rest of my life without you, baby?
How can I get through
How can I get through this pain of losing you?
Baby, tell me why
I've waited weeks for your call
I've waited here by the phone
But when the silence grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it, babe
How could you do it, babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
I've waited weeks for your call
I've waited here by the phone
But when the silence grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it, babe
How could you do it, babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
How could you do it, babe?
How could you do it, baby
And tear my poor heart in two?
Sorry baby, baby
Said, "I'm so sorry, baby"
