Blinded By Love

Slim Smith

I came home and nothing was right
It's been a while since a fight, well, maybe tonight
My need for love can cloud my sight
And I say things out of spite or I push you asideOh, I don't know how to fix it
I am falling apart and I am breaking your heartHelp me to see
'Cause I am blinded by love, blinded by love
And help me to be the one to guide us through
The dark things we doNow I know I can be tough sometimes
My words come out like knives cutting the space between us
And you try, yeah, I know you try to just let things slide
But what good is that to us?Oh, oh, oh, oh, I don't know
I am falling apart and I am breaking your heartHelp me to see
'Cause I am blinded by love, blinded by love
And help me to be the one to guide us through
The dark things we doOh, I don't know what possibly changed
We were so good, so good
And where is the light at the end of this tunnel?
'Cause I am falling apart and I am breaking your heartHelp me to see
'Cause I am blinded by love, blinded by love
And help me to be the one to guide us through
The dark things we do
