Worry No More

Ron Wood

My life was once filled with anger
So much anger and grief
Now I found a spirit
Heading into my heart
It's the only thing that gives me relief

Jealousy 'n fear were with me daily
I was always afraid of getting lost
Once was surely blind
But now it's all behind
I can see all the bridges I have crossed

When the devil comes around
It's gonna be knock knock knock knock
Knocking at your front door
Gotta go out and greet him
Greet 'em with a smile
Say "Devil, I don't worry no more."

Jealousy 'n fear were with me daily
I was always afraid of getting lost
Once was surely blind
But now it's all behind
I can see all the bridges I have crossed

When the devil comes around
It's gonna be knock knock knock
Trying tear down your front door
Gotta go out and greet him
Greet 'em with a smile
Sayin' "Devil, I don't worry no more."

My life was once filled with anger
So much anger and grief
Now I found a spirit
Heading into my heart
It's the only thing that gives me relief

And I ain't gonna worry no more
Ain't gonna worry no more

Ain't gonna worry no more
Ain't gonna worry no more
Ain't gonna worry no more
Ain't gonna worry no more
Ain't gonna worry no more
