Sittin' on a Fence

Poco

What is it gonna be
When the dust has settled
Will you clearly see
Down the road you're driftin'
Lost and caught in confusionWaitin' for the day
You won't have to choose
Who can have their way
Without taking sides or goin'
Feelin' so badCome on and take a stand
'Cause you're sure to fall
Sittin' on a fence
Don't you sit on a fenceWhere should you begin
Lookin' for an answer
How can you give in
When worry has you wishin', hopin'
Sayin' you don't knowNow it's up to you
Stand on what you feel
Or fall if you should lose
Nothing's ever certain to last
On the long runCome on and take a stand
'Cause you're sure to fall
Sittin' on a fence
Don't you sit on a fence
