

Rise and Fall

Tesla

I thought I saw a ghost in the dark
It was somethin' I don't recognize
I swear to God it rode on a horse
With a sword held up to the sky
Like a flash of light I felt the chills run up my spine
That's when I fell down to my knees
Started prayin' for my life Just when I think I've seen everything
Even the demon Saul
Just when I think I've seen everything under the sun
I'm not surprised at all
Is this for real, or just another trick
On my hallucinating mind
Or spirits slowly flowin' 'cross the floor
Can't be seen with the naked eye
Could it be the demons screamin' as the angels cry
Or maybe I'm just witnessing
Hell falling from the sky Just when I think I've seen everything
My skin begins to crawl
Just when I think I've seen everything under the sun
I'm not surprised at all
Is this the rise and fall As the full moon rises
Wolves are howlin' through the night
I'm wondering if I will make it
To the morning light
Just when I think I've seen everything
My skin begins to crawl
Just when I think I've seen everything under the sun
I'm not surprised at all
I'm not surprised at all
I'm not surprised at all
Is this the rise and fall
