I, of Course, Replied

Gilbert O'Sullivan

Hey pretty baby, have you heard the news?
Somebody stepped upon my blue suede shoes
They said they were sorry and as you can see
I took it all in my stride, but when they said
"Is there something we can do?", I of course repliedI went to my doctor just the other day
I said, "Listen Doc, are you feeling okay?"
I told him to lie down on his couch and that I would look inside
But when he began to hurl abuse, I of course repliedAs you might well have heard
And as from today
Not only have women equal rights
Now they also have equal payThey said, "Run along now, there's a good chap"
So I pushed them to one side
And when they said, "Hey, what's the meaning of this?"
I of course replied
