

Beautiful Life (la Bella Vita)

Lindsay Lohan

God won't talk to me
I guess she's pretty busy lately
But I like to believe
She's listening
I'm starting to feel all of my bruises imagined, all real
And I'll get through each day
Dip through the bad ones to get to the good ones
Who's keeping score anyway
And this is my beautiful life
But only things sudden is, everything changes
Lows and the highs and all those goodbyes
As hard as it gets, I know it's still amazing
To be alive, it's a beautiful life
I talk in my sleep, that's the one place I know
No one can hear me and I tell myself things
Walk in the shadows, there's always tomorrow
And I'm right where I want to be
And this is my beautiful life
The only things sudden is, everything changes
Lows and the highs and all those goodbyes
As hard as it gets, I know it's still amazing
To be alive
Oh, it hurts while it happening
I wanna feel everything
How can you know till you try
And this is my beautiful life
My beautiful life
The only things sudden is, everything changes
Lows and the highs and all those goodbyes
As hard as it gets, I know it's still amazing
To be alive, it's a beautiful life
It's a beautiful life
It's a beautiful life
It's a beautiful life
