Gurr

He's always left to go alone, the last one to go home He's always left to go alone, the last one to go home The beer got stale but there's a gaze from a young pretty witty face that girl July she locks her eyes, gonna take her home tonight Underage drinking, fucking around, I had to turn thirty before I could be so cool
She drops out of school
First I was miserable in this bar, now they call me Carlos I'm a superstar, so cool
I'm a fool Underage drinking fucking around Is my video ready yet, is is? He's always left to go alone, the last one to go home He's always left to go alone, the last one to go home Underage drinking, fucking around, I had to turn thirty before I could be so cool
She drops out of school
First I was miserable in this bar, now they call me Carlos I'm a superstar, so cool
I'm a fool
Underage drinking fucking around Is my video ready yet, is is?
