

Drown Me in Your Love

Jacquie Lee

You don't make it easy for me
If I let go, imagine where we could be
If I spent less time trying to make up my mind
Then I would see you're exactly what I need
Stop reading my mind,
You're searching for signs
I'll meet you half way
It's taking me time to say the words
That I find that are easy to say!
Why don't you drown me in your love
When I fall down, who will pick me back up?
Who will save me from myself,
When I see you there's no one else?!
Why don't you drown me in your love?
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love
Who else stands still when with you?
But is a calm to this storm I never knew
I'm tired run in you're bed
All alone in the deep end
The current pulls us both deeper into the blue!
Stop reading my mind,
You're searching for signs
I'll meet you half way
It's taking me time to say the words
That I find that are easy to say!
Why don't you drown me in YOUR LOVE
When I fall down, who will pick me back up?
Who will save me from myself,
When I see you there's no one else?!
Why don't you drown me in your love?
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love
Drown me, drown me in your love

Songwriters

Lee, Jacquie / Rosse, Eric / Waronker, Anna / Rotondi, Benedetto
Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>