She

Prime STH

I looked into her eyes and died
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
This was always meant to happen
We were always meant to beAnd I have waited for this moment
All my lifeEverything's for real, don't wake me up
She is the one
It's all inside my head, don't make it stop
My only oneShe crashed into my life, she smiled
No chance to run, no chance to hide
This was always meant to happen
We were always meant to beAnd I have waited for this moment
All my lifeEverything's for real, don't wake me up
She is the one
It's all inside my head, don't make it stop
My only oneStill afraid to open up my eyes
She is the one, my only one
This was always meant to happen
We were always meant to beAnd I have waited for this moment
All my life, all my lifeEverything's for real, don't wake me up
She is the one
It's just inside my head, don't make it stop
My only oneStill afraid to open up my eyes
She is the one, my only one
