Desire

Zwan

Northern star, am I frightened?
Where can I go to rest?
I can't sleep, and I'm still fightin'
Wait, don't breathe
The time destroys a man
A child who understands
That anyone who, desires
Is not my kind
Not my truth
Fade away, it's all we'll do
Fade away, from the truth
Desires fade away
Desires fade away
Desires
And northern star, please enlighten
The lost prayers of my soul
Childhood dreams, of death and Titans
We were meant, to be free
To give ourselves away
So please don't be afraid
Of anyone who, desires
They're not my kind
Not my truth
Fade away, it's all we'll do
Fade away, from the truth
Desires, fade away
Desires, fade away
Desires, fade away
Desires
'Cause anyone who, desires
Is not my kind
I have no use for you
