Shipwreck

Covenant

in my Heaven of Despair lies the Ocean of Impurity a ship made of angels' hair set sails on the morning tide
in my Heaven of Despair blows the Wind of Insanity a ship is sailing there with sails made of golden pride as the drowning man
I watch myself in the boiling sea
so if you are a man
prepare yourself for joining me
in my Heaven of Despair lies the Shipwreck of my hope it is the sign for those who dare in memory of those who tried
as the drowning man
