Dedicate

Runner Runner

All I hear is your voice
A whisper away
Always calls to me
All I keep with me
Are memories of you
Wonder what it's like out there
Hoping all your good dreams come true

When you float out above does the world finally come into view?

Today I dedicate to you
I wont let ya go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart that just won't be the same
Today I dedicate to you

All I hear are your words
They carry me carry me
Everywhere I go
All I dream of is me next you
Did you find yourself out there?
Did you really find out the truth?

Well I guess heaven knew that we all see the angel in you
When you float out above does the world finally come into view?

Today I dedicate to you
I wont let ya go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart that just won't be the same
Without you

Can I say I miss you down here?
No I'm not, not alone

Today I dedicate to you
I wont let ya go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart that just won't be the same
Today I dedicate to you
