

Homecoming

Galactic Pegasus

Why? Â

I'm here to say I'm on my way back
I made the jump myself from decadence to excellence
The constantly longing for more

The old hopeless me
Looking back for you
The old hopeless me
Finding nothing new Lasts only one night
Running endlessly
Unsanctified
Running hopelessly
This is my Homecoming

Poison grows in the form of ideas
Like a cancer now
Next chapter please
I'm really fucking dying to turn the page of this Cut my fucking losses and begin again
After all of this confusion
I wonder where i would have been

Running endlessly
You said this was ours
Forever and a day spent watching the same mistakes
Maybe we're not meant to be

Running endlessly
Isn't it funny how you have control
And then it's gone
Maybe we're not meant to be "â€"â€"
This is my homecoming
Poison grows in the form of ideas
Like a cancer now
Put em up quick
This is not where I 'oughta be Hoping you wince
When you laugh at the thought of me

If you're not legit
then you're basically a nothing in this life
