

Matter

Baio

When I wake up
I'll need you by my side
My lonesome selves have three of us
If I never share that thought
It's wrong because I ought
To tell you how I feel
Sometimes I say that it doesn't matter
When it means the world to me
I need you to believe
I was feeling heavy feelings
That I didn't wanna say
So I wrote 'em in a letter, and threw it roundly
Sometimes I say that it doesn't matter
When it means the world to me
I need you to believe
