500 Miles

Bad Astronaut

If you miss the train I'm on
You will know that I have gone
And I'm 500 miles from my homeA 500 miles, a hundred miles
A 500 miles, a hundred miles
You can hear the whistle blow a hundred milesNot a shirt on my back
Not a penny to my name
No, I can't go back home
There's no way500 miles, 500 miles
500 miles, 500 miles
You can hear the whistle blow a hundred milesHey, if you miss the train I'm on
You will know that I have gone
And I'm 500 miles, 500 miles
I am 500 miles from my home
