A Quiet Place

Garnet Mimms

Johnny, Johnny DollarLady, lady, lady
Why do you holler?
Ain't nobody seen
Your Johnny DollarI can't get no sleep
In this noisy street
I've got to move
(I've got to move)
I've got to find me a quiet placeThere's a man next door
With a radio and he plays it
All through the nightThere's a couple in the Apartment above my head
That don't do nothing
But fuss and fightI can't get no sleep
In this noisy street
I've got to move
(I've got to move)
I've got to find me a quiet placeTell me, where do you go
When you got no dough?
There must be a way
Out of hereBut I've got to find
Some peace of mind
There must be a place
That I can findBelieve me when I tell you
There's a cat that gets Under my window
And he meows all the timeThere's a drunk that wakes me
In the middle of the night
Singing 'Sweet Adeline'I can't get no sleep
In this noisy street
I've got to move
(I've got to move)
I've got to find me a quiet placeI can't get no sleep
In this noisy street
I've got to move
(I've got to move)
I've got to find me a quiet placeOh, I've got to move
(I've got to move)
I've got to find me
A quiet placeI got to get away from

This noisy street
