Rockets

Ella Henderson

Oh nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And no, my heart explodes
Kaboom, like rockets in the skyWooh, yeah, ooh
Are you some kind of mind reader
'Cause you know all the things you say
You brighten up my darkest days, days yeah
I'm not afraid to say that I need you
And I know it sounds insane
But boy I never felt this way, way yeah3, 2, 1 Look where we are
Got me launching to the stars
Oh, let's goAnd no, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And no, my heart explodes
Kaboom, like rockets in the skyHit me like a crash of thunder
Yeah you knock me off my feet
Promise that you'll never leave, leave, yeah
And this must be a spell I'm under
'Cause if I'm dreaming let me sleep
'Cause I don't ever want to break free, no3, 2, 1 Look where we are
Got me launching to the stars
Woah, let's goAnd no, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And no, my heart explodes
Kaboom, like rockets in the skyLike rockets, can't stop us
Our love is hotter than flames
We're shooting over this place, yeah
Like rockets, we progress
And I know we won't ever change
'Cause we're shooting over this place, noAnd no, nobody knows but you (Nobody knows)
How to make me come alive
And no, my heart explodes (My heart explodes)
Kaboom, like rockets in the skyBoy, are you some kind of mind reader
I'm not afraid to say that I need you
No, no, no (Make me come alive)
Hit me like a crash of thunder
This must be a spell that I'm under Ooh, like rockets in the sky
Like rockets in the sky, no, yeah
