

Allow Me To Introduce Myself...mr.right

The White Tie Affair

There's gonna be a party tonight
And do you think that you're invited?
I know that you're excited
Gonna be a party tonight
Wouldn't you think you'd know
If I were excited
All these consequences keep running around your head
But who knows what they'll say, when it all comes down to
Through the moonlight glow I know, heart racing fast as it can go
Our eyes meet instantly, you're on your way, yeah
Let it become
(Don't stop)
Your breathing
Let it become
(Don't stop)
Your breathing
Let's get this party started 'cause
She was thinking Mr.Right, I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
She was thinking Mr.Right, I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
We started dancing getting crazy on the dance floor
Come and dance with me, I'll show you what your looking for Gonna slow down, gonna go down, gonna make it all night
If you're with me, I'll quickly make everything alright
Let it become
(Don't stop)
Your breathing
Let it become
(Don't stop)
Your breathing
She was thinking Mr.Right, I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
She was thinking Mr.Right, I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
Ever since I laid my eyes on you
There's been so much I've wanted to do
Bring your body closer to mine, mine
There's gonna be a, be a, a, a party

Gonna be a, be a, a, a party tonight
Let's get this party started right
Da, da, da, da, gonna rock the floor, gonna dance to the tempo
Da, da, da, da, gonna rock the floor, gonna dance, dance, dance
She was thinking Mr.Right I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
She was thinking Mr.Right I was thinking right now
Contemplating over it and over and over again
She was thinking Mr.Right I was thinking right now
