

Tilt

In Flames

We all find ourselves
In honor of the good cause
How empty we've become
With our sight to be the true force Does every instinct say you're right?
I think sometimes there is doubt You're waiting for a re-run
But yesterday won't come
Want to relive the moment
But yesterday is gone Lies and desperation lead us through
As we're trying to be heroic
Straight the world to what you manage
Take a step back, I'll tie you to it You're waiting for a re-run
But yesterday won't come
Want to relive the moment
But yesterday is done Hopes and prayers in pursuit of salvation
Take a short cut, it all depends on the cost
But as far as I remember there is nothing
That will get back the days you lost Does every instinct say you're right?
I think sometimes there is doubt You're waiting for a re-run
But yesterday won't come
Want to relive the moment
But yesterday is done

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>