

Memory Shadows

MILKA

I can't believe what I see when I look at your face
The beauty of the world to the light of your eyes can't compare
And so far all I want to feel, to love, to hold is you
And so far all I want to crave, to breathe, adore is you And I (I still)
And I feel you Tossing and turning in my bed just thinking of you
When you just think about me once in a blue moon
Standing in the line of fire and I'm burning down
I'm paying for the consequences of your ghost town And I (I still)
And I feel you In memory's shadows you remind me of light
And the sun rises
(repeat) Love me, love me
Take me where you are
Love me, love me
Or let go of my heart (x2)
