Until It's Gone

Monica

It's a shame you ain't wanted when you had it
Gave my love and you took the shit for granted
And it was me those nights that you didn't come home
Crying to my momma, blowing up your phone
Just wait a little while, baby you gon' see
That this gon' hurt you more than it hurt meOne thing that I know for sure
Is you gon' miss me when I go
And it's gon' hurt babe
When you're all alone
I guess it's true what people say
You never know
What you have until it's goneYou can never say I didn't try
Gave my all but I couldn't make you fight
And it was me those nights that you didn't come home
Crying to my momma, blowing up your phone
Just wait a little while, baby you gon' see
That this gon' hurt you more than it hurt meOne thing that I know for sure
Is you gon' miss me when I go
And it's gon' hurt babe
When you're all alone
I guess it's true what people say
You never know
What you have until it's goneAnd I can't say enough that it's gon' be me you'll miss no
And I can't say enough that it ain't gon' get no better
I'm tryna make you realize
I cried and I cried so many times
But one thing I know
It's gon' hurt when you go
But one thing that I know babeOne thing that I know for sure
Is you gon' miss me when I go
And it's gon' hurt babe
You're all alone
I guess it's true what people say
You never know
I guess it's true what people say
You never know
What you have until it's gone
