If You Were a Sailboat

Katie Melua

If you were a cowboy I would trail you If you were a piece of wood Id nail you to the floor If you were a sailboat I would sail you to the shoreIf you were a river I would swim you If you were a house I would live in you all my days If you were a preacher Id begin to change my waysSometimes I believe in fate But the chances we create Always seem to ring more true You took a chance on loving me I took a chance on loving youIf I was in jail I know youd spring me If I was a telephone youd ring me all day long If I was in pain I know youd sing me soothing songsSometimes I believe in fate But the chances we create Always seem to ring more true You took a chance on loving me I took a chance on loving youIf I was hungry you would feed me If I was in darkness you would lead me to the light If I was a book I know youd read me every nightIf you were a cowboy I would trail you If you were a piece of wood Id nail you to the floor If you were sailboat I would sail you to the shore If you were sailboat I would sail you to the shore
