

Yo Side Of The Bed

Trey Songz

She's gone again
She's gone again, oh no Every time she leaves
It's my heart that she's takin' from me
And I dunno if she's gone for good
Or returning in the morning And I wait through the night
'Cause I can't help the tossing and turning
I want you to know that our bed, our sheets, our pillows
Gettin' lonely on yo side of the bed Yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side
It's lonely on yo side of the bed
Yo side, yo side, yo side
It's not the same without you here on yo side of the bed And I can't hold you below
It's lonely on yo side of the bed
Yo side, yo side, yo side
It's so lonely there, and I don't wanna sleep if you ain't here, no I just wanna breathe your air
Watch you when you're wrapping up your hair
Gazing at the mirrors up there
I'm reaching while imagining that you're there Awake through the night
Girl tossing and turning and tossing and turning
Our bed, our sheets, our pillows
Gettin' lonely on yo side of the bed Yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side
It's lonely on yo side of the bed
(Yo side, yo side, yo side)
Where I lay my head
It's not the same without you here on yo side of the bed And I can't hold you below
It's lonely on yo side of the bed
(Yo side, yo side, yo side)
It's so lonely there, and I don't wanna sleep if you ain't here, no Play on, that's what you gotta do sometimes
Let it play baby
So lonely there
On yo side of the bed Yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side
It's so lonely, baby
When you come home, girl you should know
Your pillow is waiting girl, on yo side of the bed Yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side, yo side
On your side, girl
This bed ain't the same without the love that we made
And the sound of the springs, no I don't wanna sleep if you ain't here
Sleep, she's coming back
Sleep, she's coming back
