

Strange Kisses

Big Bopper

I took a chance, went to the dance
Just lookin', lookin' for someone new
I thought you were home, knew I was wrong
But I was feelin', feelin' so low and blue
A few strange kisses was all that I wanted
Didn't think it hurt to fool you
A few strange kisses was all that I wanted
I didn't want to lose you
I left the dance with my new romance
But soon my little game was through
I looked 'cross the floor and through the door
I saw you lookin' for strange kisses too
