

Gemini Child (Alan Black Session)

Kevin Ayers

Spent an awful lot of time making tunes and making rhymes
Things that other people do, yeah
From this heap of words and rhyme
I never really gave much time to something just for you, yeah Oh gemini child you know I love you
I don't really have to tell you
Cause you know damn well that I do Anyway it's not so much what I say as
What I do for you girl
So here's a song that I thought of long ago
That really comes from you, yeah Gemini child, you make life come alive
Suddenly there's so much loving to share with you And I do gemini child, you make life come alive
Suddenly there's so much loving to share with you And I do oh gemini child you know I love you
I don't really have to tell you
Cause you know damn well that I do
