

The World Is for the Young

Herman's Hermits

Gloria: Looking in the mirror last night,
My grey hair turned to black.
Looking in the mirror last night
Pleasant memories came back.
Why, I remember back when i was seventeen
And all the things i wanted to do
The world was new.Tulip: The world is for the young
C'mon, we're on our way.
Its a wonderful place.
What we done and what we're going to do.
Then we'll have changed it's face.Mr Brown: Searching through some papers last night
A sweet scent filled the air.
It came from the letter i found
And a lock of dark hair.
It belonged to a girl who was in love with me.
And she written that without me, she'd die.
Mrs Brown: I wonder why?Mrs Brown: Looking through an album last night
I came acrossed a snap.
That showed a handsome youth
With a girl sitting on his lap."Valentino?" i thought, with his sleeked black hair,
And Mary Pigford was on his knee.
But it was me!Mr & Mrs: The world is for the young
But they'll soon find out
When they come to explore,
The strange new lands of expirience.
But we've been there before.Mr: Trying to recapture the past
Only makes me regret.
The passing of an age and all the people that i've met.
Gloria: A ride on a tram on the upper deck,
With a boy with a Fairbanks moustache.
We were so rash.All: The world is for the young
It was always so.Mr, Mrs, Gloria: It's not ours anymore
But, they'll find out when they follow us.
'cause we've been there before.
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>