Screwed

Bob Gentry

Please don't let it begin
You're under my skin, same old story
Boy meets girl and she falls
Much harder than him
Baby, where's the glory?
If all night, all night
Your attention's not mine
Please don't let it begin
You're under my skin, it's a sin
'Cause you're starting to win
Since I'm already screwed
Here's a message to you
My heart's wide open
And I'm just not getting through
To the lover in you
But I'm still hoping
That tonight, tonight
You're gonna turn down the lights
And give me a little more room
Just to prove it to you
What do I gotta do?
Just push her aside
She's not your type, so clich
