

Screwed

Bob Gentry

Please don't let it begin
You're under my skin, same old story
 Boy meets girl and she falls
 Much harder than him
 Baby, where's the glory?
 If all night, all night
 Your attention's not mine
 Please don't let it begin
You're under my skin, it's a sin
 'Cause you're starting to win
 Since I'm already screwed
 Here's a message to you
 My heart's wide open
And I'm just not getting through
 To the lover in you
 But I'm still hoping
 That tonight, tonight
You're gonna turn down the lights
 And give me a little more room
 Just to prove it to you
 What do I gotta do?
 Just push her aside
 She's not your type, so cliché
