

Silent Angel

Crystal Eyes

Lies, empty words in the wind
A tragic melody
Unwise is the one who believe in tomorrowPre Chorus
The shade of a loser never fades away until the story ends
But there is a light where I lonely stray and the light is you my friendChorus Silent angel from above
Take me on your wings of love
Fly me far away from here
Show me the way to the silenceFree is the one with a name carved in a tombstone
Tell me, am I the one to blame for my life?Pre Chorus
The pain is eternal when I realise, all my thoughts were true
There's neither a Heaven nor a paradise
All I can believe in is youChorusBridge
I see her face in the crowds, the darkness and the clouds I'll wait for her until I find eternal tranquillitySolo Dahl
