

Chameleon/Comedian

Kathleen Edwards

I know your heart
It is a secret thing
And you're a comedian
And you hide behind your funny face
I'm out of the shadows
And in the mirrors and the lights
You're a chameleon
And you hide behind your darker side
If you see me smile
It's not for a funny joke
See me smile
It's not for a funny joke
It's only just because [...]
Everybody's watching
The way that I see you will not change
I'll be a medium
For everything you wanted to say
And I'm out of the shadows
Into the cameras and the lights
You're a chameleon
And I hide behind the songs that I write
If you see me smile
It's not for a funny joke
See me smile
It's not for a funny joke
When you see me smile
It's not for a funny joke
It's only because [...]
See me smile
It's not for a funny joke
See me smile
It's not for a funny joke
See me smile
It's not for a funny joke
It's only because [...]
